

30 Nov - 1 Dec 2011
iPower

Showcasing UK Power Electronics

IMAPS-UK & National Microelectronics Institute (NMI) are holding a two day technical conference and industry networking event at the WMG, Warwick University, Coventry CV4 7AL in conjunction with the University's, Electronics, Power and Microsystems Research Group (PEATER).

Book the dates of 30 November – 1 December 2011 for a unique event that will provide the opportunity for:

- Updates on the latest Power Electronic developments, devices & technologies.
- Networking between end-users, researchers, supply chains and technology providers.
- Business development opportunities for your Company & its products.

There is also an opportunity to take a tour of Warwick Universities new Silicon Carbide design, development and fabrication facility.

4 Sessions over the 2 days will cover the topic of Power Electronics in terms of :

- Scenario & Application Directions
- Technology Developments
- Materials & Processes
- Manufacturing & Assembly

Supported by:

